

Gareth Emery, Concrete Angel (feat. Christina Novelli)

Let me breathe you in
And break the words in your mouth
Inside your shivering
The silence shouts so loud
I just want to
I just want to stay around
When my heart beats I promise I won't let you down

If I'm somewhere else
It doesn't mean that I don't see
That you don't trust yourself
That's why you don't trust me
It makes me crazy
When your crazy you don't speak
You think you know me
But what you know is just skin deep

If you keep building these walls
Brick by brick tower so tall
Soon I won't see you at all
?Til the concrete angel falls
I know who you are from the start
But now I don't know who you are Soon there will be nothing at all
?Til the concrete angel falls
