

Gareth Gates, Dance Again

When you need somebody to take away the emptiness i hope my heart is enough when youre searching for someone who will understand i hope its me you will trust

Chorus

Love is a stranger 't'l you let it in
I wanna mend your broken wings
Make your heart dance again
Make your heart breathe again
Til you believe again whoa
Make your heart dance again
Running free again
Through fields of green again whoa
Just give me half a chance
To make your heart dance

Its never too late
Dont give it all up so easily
Just cos your hearts out of love
Dont you stop dreaming
Dont turn your back and walk away
And all is not lost

Ill play you a song only words can sing
I wanna mend your broken wings

Chorus

Every morning that you wake up and gaze into the sky
Your heart will dance just like a butterfly
And nothing else means more to me
And maybe someday you will see Everything you ever dreamed you'd be

Chorus to end
