

Garou, Accidental

We're all angels that fall from grace
So you don't have to hide your face from me It's the burden you won't lay down
It's the guilt that you carry around
You can see it coming
But somehow you can't seem to avoid it
Avoid this
Life is accidental
And things happen coincidentally
I never mean to hurt you
You never mean to hurt me
But we all get our hands a little dirty
Let it out and let me inside Tell me things that you feel you need to hide
All your secrets can't be worse than mine
So come closer and hold me tight
'Til you feel the poison running
From your veins and turning into nothing
Nothingness
Life is accidental
And things happen coincidentally
I never mean to hurt you
You never mean to hurt me
But we all get our hands a little dirty
Don't get down
Just look around
There's no one perfect in this town
Don't beat yourself up
Like everyone else does
Bit by bit it all gets turned around
Life is accidental
And things happen coincidentally
I never mean to hurt you
You never mean to hurt me
But we all get our hands a little dirty