

Garret, Place In My Heart

Down the way
That life lays out
There'll be traps, there'll be pain, there'll be losses
But so much to admire
Spread your light
Make your path more bright
The clearer you go, the easier life shows
All the beauty at your side
Don't fear what still is to come
Don't hang on to a life that's gone
Breathe in new dreams
Make these your guides
But if days feel long
And nights fall hard
When every choice ends up as a wrong track and it seems
Nothing's going to end up right
Then take my hand
And hold it tight
Whenever time toughens, I'll be there, please just trust this
I'll make you feel all right
There's no use in holding tears
If their cause will still be real
The way to make them disappear is let them
Water your dry mouth
And let me
Carry you to
A place in my heart where you know
That you'll always be safe cause it's where you belong
At my side you can search for your sleep
While the sadness still aches, while it cuts you so deep
Let me be for you
What you want me to
I'll be for you
What you want me to
