

Garrison Starr, Superhero

We are ten years old
We are holding our breath underwater
Eardrums bursting from the pressure
We can touch the bottom

Won't you come away with me
We are flying high
Bare carpet on our feet
And we are airplanes today
We can do anything, we can do anything

I don't ever wanna leave this stage
Yeah, I am a superhero these days

Oh baby where am I gonna go
There must be a place for me I know
Try and try as I may
I can't make sense of a word I say, yeah

Cause I don't ever wanna leave this stage
Yeah, I am a superhero these days
And I don't ever wanna leave my age
Yeah, i am a superhero these days

Touch my cape, I'll take you
Touch my cape, I'll take you
Come on, touch my cape, and I'll take you
Come on, touch my cape, we're gonna make a whole new world

And I don't ever wanna leave this stage
Yeah, I am a superhero these days
And I don't ever wanna leave my age
Yeah, I am a superhero these days
