

Garth Brooks, That Girl Is A Cowboy

It was a hundred and seven
We were heading to town
She had her sleeves rolled up
And the windows rolled down
That girl is a cowboy
Robert Earl was singing out
The "Buckin' Song"
With every word that keen was bringing
She was singing along
That girl is a cowboy

(Chorus)
Sometimes the best cowboys
Ain't cowboys at all
She's got my back
Even when it's against the wall
When I need a friend
She's the guy to call
'Cause sometimes the best cowboys
Ain't cowboys at all

So I took her out to show her
How to rope and ride
I can't believe that it was me
That wound up broke and tied
That girl is a cowboy

So that night I decided
We should paint the town
I made it home although
I really don't remember how
That girl is a cowboy
(repeat chorus)
There's just something that a cowgirl has Ain't no cowboys got
Man she's something when she's one of the boys
But something else
Anytime she's not
(repeat chorus)
