

Gary Barlow, Yesterday's Girl

He loved you much more, than a sister or brother, he is honest and kind,
he's a man like no other,
and he'd give his own life, if somebody needed it more, yes he laughs all the time with me, he gives his love and friendship to all,

You hurt him real bad, in his moments of silence, he shares all his pain with me, and his personal subsidence, still he fights with his mind, he believes he's done you wrong, so he goes to sleep cryin' again like a child, like a child,

He would go anywhere that you ask,
he would answer to all that you need,
but it's clear now to me what he's feelin' inside, he is thinking of yesterday's girl, all you are now is yesterday's girl, he is free now from all of your painful attacks, free now from all of your poisonous chats,
free,
yesterday's girl,

On occasions we'd smoke, and make small conversation, we'd pass briefly on older times, and forgotten relations, he's the best friend I've ever had,
our opinions never cross, now you come to me needin' a shoulder that's strong, all of your pain is because you were wrong,

He would go anywhere that you ask,
he would answer to all that you need,
but it's clear now to me what he's feelin' inside,
he is thinking of yesterday's girl,
all you are now is yesterday's girl,
he is free now from all of your painful attacks,
free now from all of your poisonous chats,
free,
yesterday's girl,

Yes he would go anywhere that you ask,
he would answer to all that you need,
but it's clear now to me what he's feelin' inside,
he is thinking of yesterday's girl,
all you are now is yesterday's girl,
he is free now from all of your painful attacks,
free,
yes he would go anywhere that you ask,
he would answer to all that you need,
but it's clear now to me what he's feelin' inside,
he is thinking of yesterday's girl,
all you are now is yesterday's girl,
he is free now from all of your painful attacks,
free,
yesterday's girl.....
