

Gary Moore, Gonna Rain Today

2,3

Outside the sun is shining
It's feeling like the month of May,
But inside my heart is pining
And I think it's gonna rain today.

Everybody I see is smiling
As they watch the children play,
But for me no reconciling
And I think it's gonna rain today.

All the clouds have gone
Everybody sees the sun,
But for me no going back
The clouds are here to stay.

Outside the sun is shining
But ever since she went away,
Inside my heart keeps pining
And I think it's gonna rain today
Yes, I think it's gonna rain today.
