

Gary Moore, Left Me With The Blues

(Gary Moore)

I can't eat, I can't sleep.
Stare at the ceiling,
Countin' sheep.
Ever since you walked out
And left me with the blues.

I get angry, I get mad.
Think about before it turned so bad.
Ever since you walked out
And left me with the blues.

I never thought that it could end like this,
That you could treat me this way.
I never thought that I'd live to see
The day when you turn your back on me.

I just can't seem to think straight,
There's no way I can concentrate.
Ever since you walked out
And left me with the blues.
Play some blues.

I never thought that it could end like this,
That you would treat me this way.
I never thought that I'd live to see
The day when you turn your back on me.

I can't seem to think straight,
There's just no way I can concentrate.
Ever since you walked out
And left me with the blues.

Ever since you walked out
And left me with the blues.

Ever since you walked out
And left me with the blues, yeah.
I wanna hear some more blues.
