Gary Numan, Night Talk

Boys watch from windows tonight I'm not surpriesed to see you waiting here You keep them in business just supplying you Get in the car I've something to say

Stay in bed why waste my time Open your eyes but only if you can Office in a sidestreet is no place for you Night talk and romance like beat the clock.

Boys like me aren't supposed to cry But it's so easy to do Boys like me aren't supposed to cry But just look at you Night talk.

Take things slow you can crack Like your face I don't understand How you smile and pretend it's fun Do you laugh when the rats come round to play?

Boys like me aren't supposed to cry But it's so easy to do Boys like me aren't supposed to cry But just look at you Night talk.
