Gary Valenciano, Where Do I Begin (Love Story)

Where do I begin
To tell the story of how great a love can be
The sweet love story that is older than the sea
The simple truth about the love she brings to me
Where do I start

With her first hello She gave new meaning to this empty world of mine There'll never be another love, another time She came into my life and made the living fine She fills my heart

She fills my heart with very special things With angels' songs and wild imaginings She fills my soul with so much love That everywhere I go I'm never lonely With her alone, who could be lonely I reach for her hand-it's always there

How long does it last Can love be measured by the hours in a day I have no answers now but this much I can say I know I'll need her till the stars all burn away And she'll be there

She fills my heart with very special things With angels' songs with wild imaginings She fills my soul with so much love That everywhere I go I'm never lonely With her alone, who could be lonely I reach for her hand-it's always there

How long does it last Can love be measured by the hours in a day I have no answers now but this much I can say I know I'll need her till the stars all burn away And she'll be there
