Gate 9, Vivid Void

Hey man, the sun rises in horizons In a new dimension of time The clock ticks like a pulsar drop beat Our planet is out of its orbit

(Ref:)

Our journey starts as we leave our planet, A forth dimension, an eclipse of time Let the planet rest in cosmic sleep As we crown us kings in a power stream.

Sucked up in the power vacuum Loaded in negative energy, The fourth dimension is our home And the we black sun that we now obey.

Our journey starts as we leave our planet, A forth dimension, an eclipse of time Let the planet rest in cosmic sleep As we crown us kings in a power stream.

Vivid void, vivid void......
