

Gates Of Ishtar, Perpetual Dawn

- 1.The Arrival Of Eternity
- 2.End My Pain

Time has taken it's toll
Years passed by like a storm
Cold, burning inside, I'm not the same
I've changed my ways

Dawn hunting my dreams
Fear, silent I scream
Pain growing inside, I'm not the same
I've found my way

Nothing is the same anymore
The times have changed, I feel so cold

Hate is ripping my guts
Light is blinding my eyes
Fools, spare me your lies, my ears are deaf
My mind is black

God - where is your god?
Pain - there's my god
Death - come for me now, end my pain
Show me the way

Everytime, everywhere
Everdawn, everfear
Nothing more, nothing less
All is done, all is said
