

Gene Clark, Sister Moon

Hey sister moon you shine and shine
You say you need my lovin but you want to be free
And you've made up your mind
Ah sister moon I am your sun
You have your independence

Except for the one that you depend on
You say you're tired you'll be living without me
You know what it is to be alone
You'll find yourself another companion
You'll never need to be back home
