

Gene Pitney, I Must Be Seeing Things

Isn't that my girl
And is that my best friend
Aren't they walking much too close together
And it don't look like their talkin' about the weather

I must be seeing things
Oh no it can't be true
I must be hearing things
When I can hear her say to him
I want you, I need you, I love you

Looking through a tear
I can see him kissing her
I can feel my poor heart slowly breaking
I'll do anything if only I was mistakin'

I must be seeing things
Oh no it can't be true
I must be hearing things
When I can hear him say to her
Forget him, It's over, Your mine now

Instrumental.....

I must be seeing things
I thought I'll never see
I must be hearing things
You made a fool of me
I must be seeing things
And hearing things

Oh no, I need you so, Oh please don't go.....
