Gene Simmons, Weapons Of Mass Destruction

(Gene Simmons)

[Verse]

Born in the ashes of ruin at the birth of your kind In the dawn of creation you conjured me in your mind Love thy neighbor as you love yourself You just can't hear the sound of your own church bells What you reep is what you get

[Chorus]

I bring you the weapons of mass destruction E pluribus unum Illusion Delusion

[Chorus]

No matter where you go there I am
Like salt on a wound you're the sacrificial lamb
You deserve everything that you get
You're guilty 'til you're proved innocent
What you see is what you get

[Chorus]

[Guitar Solo]
