

Genitorturers, Lesser Gods

Watch the ones that will not let you see
What falls beyond their faith's conformity
Of one God
Of one mind
Of one soul

You take control

You're set apart without a cross to wear

Left alone without their guilt to bear

Of one God

Of one Mind

Of one soul

You take control

Transcend, transcend all of the words that trap you in

Transcend, transcend another force you have to end
