

Gentleman, Life Takes More Than That

Intro:

A who do yuh man
Bun grudge and jealousy
Don't try fi rob me off my dignity
Won't let you destroy my definity
Shame and pride things of humanity
But the soul is infinity

In dis ya human experience
I see you putting up a fence
But a nuh so the journey is meant
Mankind that's an offense
Enlightened souls seeking a better way
We smokin' marihuana
We think of thoughts just like the buddha say
We head to nirvana

Chorus

Not wood not stone
Not flesh not bone
Not teeth noch tongue
Life takes more than that

All dem words it is just hypocrisy
Personality that is just psychology
Shame and pride things of humanity
But the soul is infinity
What is good for you is terrible for me
Don't want to live the mental slavery
I am a piece in reality
I come to liberate and set the captives free

Chorus

Trying to get a head at my expense
Hoping that I will get bitter
You keep on doing it with all your relent
I ask of you what is the matter
You throw the line and see every day, lord
Frying the snapper
You better hurry up get conscience today
Before your head get lick by the shotter

Chorus
