

George, Growing With Love

When I think back to all the times that we've been through up to now There are so many things I wish that I could change Guilt and fear and anger all tied up in stupid chains I want to crush up all that hurt and see you smile again

Growing with love,
finding the right way to feel
Can you forgive
the foolish ways I've been?
I want to learn from the past but I need to move on and recapture the beauty
that brought us here

When we started on this road, we never thought of what might be How the love we shared so free was brought into question I'm sorry for the times I hurt you and made you cry but here we are, still standing here getting stronger yet this time

Growing with love,
finding the right way to feel
Can you forgive
the foolish ways I've been?
I want to learn from the past
but I need to move on
that brought us here

Say it out loud, we're breaking down the walls of our fears
And after all is said and done We have shared more than most ever get the time,
time to spend with their loved ones
We have grown much wiser, now the storm is over.

I never thought it would happen
I never thought this could happen
I never thought...

Growing with love,
Can you forgive
the foolish ways I've been?
