

George Jones, Still Doing Time

Has it been a year since the last time I've seen her
My God I could swear it was ten
And the ocean of liquor I drank to forget her
Is gonna kill me but I'll drink 'til then

I've been living in hell with a bar for a cell
Still paying for my cheating crime
And I've got a long way to go
Still doing time

(Chorus:)
Still doing time
In a honky tonk prison
Still doing time
Where a man forgiven
My poor heart is breaking
But there's no escaping
Each morning I wake up and I find
Still doing time

Oh when your caught cheating twice
It's twenty to life in a place
Where the sun never shines
And tomorrow you're gonna find me right here
Still doing time

(Repeat chorus)
