

George Sampson, Headz Up

Goes somethin like this

Haha

Guess whos comming

I've got a fake ID like a secret agent

To get in and outta here when the rythm changes

I'm a bad superhero

I Bring truth to the winners to the boozers, losers, cheaters

To the non-believers

All the girls in the hood keep them high

And the boys know the girls will deny

But the girls know exactly what is up

Shake it all the way to the club x2

Ref.

To al of my people

I'm sending a signal

The secret is out

Shake It Shake It

Don't need your permission

This is our decision

Were rockin' this town

Headz Up Headz Up

Shut Up and listen all your talking

Makes my head blow to pieces

This is negative like recees

Girls are dying for my kisses

So my legs started moving

To the exit

I can't stop me

And the Dj's getting ready to start rockin'

Do you copy

All the girls in the hood keep them high

And the boys know the girls will deny

But the girls know exactly what is up

Shake it all the way to the club x2

Ref.

To al of my people

I'm sending a signal

The secret is out

Shake It Shake It

Don't need your permission

This is our decision

Were rockin' this town
