

George Strait, When I Looked Into Your Eyes

there you were sitten on the patio.
watchin the moon and the stars.
here I was watching them twinkle in your eyes.
I never saw anything so beautiful as you

chourse:
when I look into your eyes they were all so beautiful here we are talkin about forever then as soon you walked out that door. my heart was broken in two.
just hurts as hell I told you before that I tried.

then I saw you in the movies I didn't even tell you before that....i loved you and I still do oh I still do forever and ever till the last day of my life chourse2x
I always will till the last day of my life
