

George Thorogood, Killer's Bluze

I'm gonna kill you
If you don't start treatin' me nice
I'm gonna kill you
If you don't start treatin' me nice
You gonna wake up one mornin' baby
Find yourself cold as ice

I'm gonna kill you
If you don't start treatin' me nice
I'm gonna kill you
If you don't start treatin' me right
You're gonna wake up one mornin' baby
Your little eyes shut tight

I'm gonna kill you
With my smokin' forty-four
I'm gonna kill you
With my smokin' forty-four
You're gonna wake up one mornin' baby
Down on the killin' floor

Now when I go to court
I will plead insanity
The judge'll pound his gavel
Say "Let the motherhumper go free"
The press and the reporters
Will say "Judge, we don't understand!"
But the judge'll say "I do,
'Cause I once was a married man!"

I'm gonna kill you
If you don't stop doggin' me round
Yeah, and I'm gonna kill you
If you don't stop doggin' me round
You wake up one mornin' baby
Six feet underground
I'm gonna kill you baby

Yeah, I'll go to jail baby
Prison don't scare me none
'Cause after livin' with you baby
Doin' time would be fun
The gas chamber and the chair
You know they don't scare me
'Cause when they pull the switch
At last I will be free

I'm gonna kill you
I'm gonna kill you baby
With my smokin' forty-four
I'm gonna kill you
You're gonna wake up one mornin' baby
Down on the killin' floor
I'm gonna kill you
I'm gonna enjoy killing you boy
I'm gonna kill anybody that reminds me of you
