

Gerry Rafferty, Another Meaning

And when I take a look around me
I wonder how the sun's so sure
He knows the way

And why he doesn't stray
And if he spends the day
Looking for another meaning

Still don't know what I really believe in Aha!
Will someone please put on the light
Make me feel all right
I've searched my head all night
Looking for another meaning

I've tried so hard to find
What I had on my mind
When I had no axe to grind
And everything was all right
All right!
All right!

And it looks like everyday
Gets a little bit harder
For me
Me
