Gerry Rafferty, Mary Skeffington

Mary Skeffington, close your eyes And make believe that you are just a girl again Go to sleep tonight, dream of days When you had something there to light the way.

Remember a holiday in a north-of-England town You slept in a room upstairs on a bed of eiderdown.

Mary Skeffington, when you wake You mustn't be afraid to face another day Think of what you have, you'll get by You've always been a lady so hold your head up high.

Look back on a home where you spent the best years of your life Remember the man who asked you if you would be his wife.

Mary Skeffington, close your eyes And make believe that you are just a girl again Go to sleep tonight, dream of days When you had something there to light the way.
