Gerry Rafferty, Winter's Come

Winter's come, another year, another season begun Everyday brings a long cold lonely night Spirits in the wind, let out their mournful sighs And I watch the rain fall down, like the teardrops from your eyes.

Oh my love, when you lay beside me, with this cold moon above Dream your dreams, let your cares all fly away We've been so alone, but soon these days must end And I will take you home, when the summer comes again.

Yes we'll be movin' on, with no sad good byes But it's only the deepest part of our love, that will keep us together But while this cold wind blows, and tears fill your eyes I'm counting the days, and learning the ways of a broken heart.

Yes we'll be movin' on, with no sad good byes But it's only the deepest part of our love, that will keep us together But while this cold wind blows, and tears fill your eyes I'm counting the days, and learning the ways of a broken heart.

Winter's come, another year, another season begun Everyday brings a long cold lonely night Spirits in the wind, let out their mournful sighs And I watch the rain fall down, like the teardrops from your eyes.

Drums/Percussion: Arran Ahmun Bass Guitar: Ian Maidman Keyboards: Kenny Craddock / Gerry Rafferty Electric Guitars: Jerry Donahue Uilleann Pipes: Davy Spillane Whistle: Davy Spillane Fiddles: Rick Sanders Vocals: Gerry Rafferty