

Geyster, Bye Bye Superman

People call me the human trampoline
I hang out with the girls of plasticine
All over the seven skies i rule
In hollywood they call me mister cool
Watch me go by

Chorus:
Bye bye superman
Fly fly superman

At dawn i like to surf the milky way
And fly around and round the equator day
Don't try to push me, you're just gonna loose
I'll crush you right back down into your shoes
You'd better let me go

Bye bye superman
Fly fly superman

Journalist:

As i'm talking to you, jennifer carlson is safe and alive,
Back from a very unusual trip. earlier today, around 2pm,
She fell through the wondow of her 59th floor apartment
At the corner of 82nd street and metro avenue. believe
It or not, but some kind of flying man just came out of the Blue right on time to rescue her from her fall. this flying
Hero is called superman. this is john clay for radio
Geyster international

Bye bye superman
Fly fly superman
