

Ghost Dance, Cinder Road

All the secret places
All the dreams Ive known
All the golden faces melt into one
And everywhere I turn just brings me back I know
Had my fingers burned but I cant let go

Im waiting, still waiting
Where can we go now

Cinder Road
Cinder road

All the secret places
All the dreams Ive known
All the golden faces melt into one
And everywhere I turn just brings me back I know
Had my fingers burned but I cant let go

Im waiting, still waiting
Where can we go now

Cinder Road
Cinder road

We can count the changes
Watch the world go by
Ill do what you say just dont ask me why
Youre a fallen angel
Come back down to earth
You could be the answer to all my prayers

Im waiting, still waiting
Where can we go now

Cinder Road
Cinder road

My pulse is racing
And the blood runs cold
My hands are shaking but I cant let go

Im waiting, still waiting
Where can we go now
