

Ghost, Kiss The Go-Goat

hay baby
kiss the goat
whoa

you've been playin' around hit magic that is black but all the powerful magical mysteries never give a single hing back you've been daddies by all dudes that wanna dad and all of those dads never gave the things that you should have had it ain't always what it seems when you cling onto a dream it ain't always there to please you but he's the guy you wanna do and you know that it takes two luckily he wants to do you too
