

Ghost Of The Robot, Smile

In, I'm falling in
I didn't want to
Not so fast boy
Slow
Don't wanna hurt the girl
Give her a pretty box
You'd better fill it

And I get blinded when she opens the door
It's like looking in to the sun, you know
And I'm just blinkin', mumblin', starin' at my shoes
And she just looks at me
And smile
Smile, smile

Oh, there we go again
And it feels so good
Of fallin' up and down
Damn, it's 2am again
And she kisses me goodbye
For the sixteenth time

And I'm drivin' home, it's 2am
And I'm look at the sun come up over the hills
Clouds are turnin' pink and green
And all I can see is her eyes
Eyes, eyes

And I get blinded when she opens the door
It's like looking in to the sun, you know
And I'm just blinkin', mumblin', starin' at my shoes
And she just looks at me
Smile, smile
