

Ghoti Hook, Means To An End alone again just like last night with every taste i think it's alright and now it's time for my selfish ending a fight that i'll lose defending

i gave myself to make you love me i gave too much and now i'm dying alone in my arms
as i lay here on the floor
being empty has passed
so i hunger for more
i fill up my love
with a sense of control
now i give you away
to get back on the floor

the boy you knew once has gone away but you can see him in my face and now i think i've reached that perfection as tears fall down my reflection

i wait out the day with a lie that i'm happy so i can make you satisfied the truth of my life is we both know that i'm dying and there's no trust that i'm trying
