

Gia Farrell, You'll Be Sorry

Who you think you are, leaving me stranded
You've gone too far, you're too demanding
How many times, how many chances
Should I let you take me for granted

[bridge:]

You believed that love
Is a silly word
Before you break my heart
Let me get a head start

[chorus:]

But when you're leaving don't forget to say goodbye
Don't come back to me this time saying you're sorry, that you love me
And when you're leaving don't forget to leave your key
Don't think I can't take care of me
You'll be sorry, you'll be sorry

You had my soul, but you went past it
So in control, so demanding
When you were mine, thought it would've lasted
Even though you're fine, don't think I can't manage

[bridge:]

You believed that love
Is a silly word
You believed that love
Is a silly word

[chorus:]

But when you're leaving don't forget to say goodbye
Don't come back to me this time saying you're sorry, that you love me
And when you're leaving don't forget to leave your key
Don't think I can't take care of me
You'll be sorry
You'll be sorry

Ooh oh...
You'll be sorry
Ooh oh...
You'll be sorry
Ooh oh ...
You'll be sorry
Ooh oh...

[chorus:]

But when you're leaving don't forget to say goodbye
Don't come back to me this time saying you're sorry, that you love me
And when you're leaving don't forget to leave your key
Don't think I can't take care of me
You'll be sorry, you'll be sorry

Ooh oh...
You'll be sorry
Ooh oh...
You'll be sorry
Ooh oh...
You'll be sorry
Ooh oh...
