Gigi D'Agostino, The Way

They made up their minds
And they started packing
They left before the sun came up that day
An exit to eternal summer slacking
But where were they going Without ever knowing the way?
They drank up the wine
And they got to talking
They now had more important things to say
And when the car broke down They started walking
Where were they going without ever knowing the way?

Anyone could see The road that they walk on is paved with gold And It's always summer, they'll never get cold They'll Never get hungry They'll never get old and gray

You can see their shadows Wandering off somewhere They won't make it home But they really don't care They wanted the highway They're happier there today, today

The children woke up
And they couldn't find them
They just drove off
And left it all behind them

But Where were they going Without ever knowing the way?

Anyone could see The road that they walk on is paved in gold And It's always summer, they'll never get cold They'll Never get hungry They'll never get old and gray You can see their shadows Wandering off somewhere They Won't make it home But they really don't care They wanted the highway They're happy there today, today Anyone could see The road that they walk on is paved in gold And It's always summer, they'll never get cold They'll Never get hungry They'll never get old and gray You can see their shadows Wandering off somewhere They Won't make it home But they really don't care They wanted the highway They're happy there today, today
