

Gil, On On

Remember lying side by side
All through a summer night
Time goes by, oh how it flies
The memories of crazy nights
Are they just a dream
Did the feeling grow
Feeling high and low

You didn't want to change
You're poisoned by a fairy tale
Stolen from your sleep
Stolen from your destiny

(chorus)
On and on
Heaven is a place for no-one or everyone
On and on
For more and more
Heaven is a place for no-one or everyone

Remember when we used to say
Our ways should never part

I thought you were the one
Now the days are gone
Now we're running out of time
Who knows the reason why
All I hear you say
The things I said today

You didn't want to change
You're poisoned by a fairy tale
Stolen from your sleep
Stolen from your destiny

(chorus) x 2

On and on
For more and more
Heaven is a place for no-one or everyone
On and on
For more and more
Heaven is a place for someone else
Heaven is a place for no-one else
Heaven is another place for you and me
