

Gil Scott-Heron, The Subject Was Faggots

The Subject Was Faggots and the quote was "ain't nothin' happenin' but faggots and dope";

Faggots and dope, faggots and faggots and faggots who line dot dot dot dot

Like that, 34th street and 8th avenue

Giggling and grinning and prancing and shit

Trying their best to see to see the misses and misery and miscellaneous misfits who attend the faggot ball faggots who have come to ball

faggots who have come to ball faggots who were balling because they couldn't get their faggots balls inside the hall

Balling, balling, ball-less faggots cutie cootie and snodie faggots

I mean you just had to dig it to dig it the crowning attraction being the arrival of Ms Brooklyn looking like a half-back in a mini-skirt his or hers or it's pectoral or balls as he or she or it prepared to enter the faggot ball but sitting on the corner digging all that I did as I did long long, black limousines a long flowin' evening gowns had there been no sign on the door that said "faggot ball";

I might have entered, and god only knows just what would've happened
