Gillian Welch, Whiskey Girl

Nowhere man And the whiskey girl Nowhere man And the whiskey girl They loaded up for A weekend in the underworld

I'd take you down Honey if I could I'd take you down Honey if I could We'd find a place In the sunshine We'd be feeling good

Don't you know That it ain't a crime Don't you know That it ain't a crime If all the squares And the junkmen Think you're out of line

Nowhere man And the whiskey girl Nowhere man and The whiskey girl They loaded up for A weekend in the underworld
