Gin Wigmore, NEW RUSH

I step on you to sip on fire
I got this feeling that I can't go back /2x
I burn my eyes to see through water
I got this feeling that I can't go back /2x

It's always you in my bed And in that bed, I saw our deaths I need to sleep with my eyes on someone new To all the fools that live in my heart To all the times I played the part I can blame all my mistakes I made on you

I step on you to sip on fire
I got this feeling that I can't go back /2x
I burn my eyes to see through water
I got this feeling that I can't go back /2x

I gave so much to feel you rush
And in that rush, I want your touch
I need to slip inside the night
Back into you
I am cold from what you've done
When it gets hot, you know I'll run
I will blame all my mistakes I made on you

I step on you to sip on fire
I got this feeling that I can't go back /2x
I burn my eyes to see through water
I got this feeling that I can't go back /2x
