

Ginny Owens, I Know Who You Are

Some people hear my words and think I'm wise beyond my years.
Others wonder if I am sincere.
Some might think I'm foolish to put my faith in You,
Some might think I'm wise because I do.

As I consider all of this,
All that really matters is...

I know, I know who You are
By the way You make the wind blow
And the way You stir my heart.
And I have only made it through so far
'Cause I know, I know who You are.

Some say You are the only Truth, some say You're a fraud.
Some think that I invented you, some call you God.
Some say You were a noble man, very kind and good.
Some think You were a prophet, just misunderstood.

But I'm content to always be
A witness to Your mystery...

Oh I know, I know who You are
By the way You make the wind blow
And the way You stir my heart.
And I have only made it through so far
'Cause I know, I know who You are.

And even though I've never seen Your face,
I have heard You calling out my name.

Oh I know, I know who You are
By the way You make the wind blow
And the way You stir my heart.
And I have only made it through so far
Cause I know, I know who You are.

I know, I know who You are.
