

Giorgio Moroder & Paul Engema, Shannon's Eyes

You felt the spot we come aflame
So hot you had to pull away
But shannon's eyes keep calling you
Seeing through the heart of you
Shannon's eyes will make you pay
Shannon's eyes will take you in
Capture you, you'll never win
Shannon's eyes will make you stay

Stay when you don't wanna be
Falling to the web she weaves
Shannon's eyes are hunting you
Giving you a fatal view
Shannon's eyes can steal your dreams
Shannon's eyes can mesmerize
Hold you prisoner, rob you blind
Shannon's eyes are mystery

I know it's hard for you to see
What heartache that is gonna be
I know she'll nver set you free
It happened once before to me

She can drive your soul insane
You struggle but it's all in vain
Shannon's eyes leave no escape
Partners in a dance of fate
Shannon's eyes will steal your dreams
Shannon's eyes will take you in
Capture you, you'll never win
Shannon's eyes are hunting me

She can drive your soul insane
You struggle but it's all in vain
Shannon's eyes are hunting you
Giving you a fatal view
Shannon's eyes will steal your dreams
Shannon's eyes can victimize
Hold you prisoner, rob you blind
Shannon's eyes are mystery

(oh) shannon's eyes will take you in
(they'll take you in)
Capture you, you'll never win
(you'll never win)
Shannon's eyes will steal your dreams
(heart's gonna break, but you'll never escape from shannon's eyes)
Shannon's eyes will take you in
(they'll steal your dreams)
Capture you, you'll never win
(they'll take you in)
Shannon's eyes will steal your dreams
(again and again and again and again oh shannon's eyes)
Shannon's eyes will take you in
Capture you, you'll never win
Shannon's eyes will steal your dreams
