

Girls Aloud, I Don't Really Hate You

Can't take me away
Don't try to handle me, you're not the boy for me
Can't take me away
Don't tell me I'm beautiful, I'm not available
Don't waste your time (You're wishing your life away)
You're not my type (I'll tell you another way)
Put out your fire (You're sticking to me like glue)
Your heart's desire (But I'm not the girl for you)
You'll be exactly who you wanna be
You'll find your way, don't wait around for me
I'm saying not the best things come for free
Just live your life, believe in destiny
I got a secret that I think you ought to know
The happy people are the ones who have a soul
I don't really hate you
Just don't wanna date you
There's not much you're stealing
Don't wanna talk about it
Hope you have a good life time (success is a sure-fire)
Hope you have a nice day
Hope you always see sunshine (and stars in the twilight)
Hope you find love some day
To tell the truth you're just too good for me
All I do all day is chase my dreams
Maybe I need to try a different scene
Your hoping that I'll get you on my team
I got a secret that I think you ought to know
The happy people are the ones who have a soul
I don't really hate you
Just don't wanna date you
There's not much you're stealing
Don't wanna talk about it
I don't really hate you
Just don't wanna date you
There's not much you're stealing
Don't wanna talk about it
Hope you have a good life time (success is a sure-fire)
Hope you have a nice day
Hope you always see sunshine (And stars in the twilight)
Hope you find love some day
Hope you have a good life time (success is a sure-fire)
Hope you have a nice day
Hope you always see sunshine (and stars in the twilight)
Hope you find love some day
