

Girls Aloud, See The Day

When you look at me
Tell me what you see
Do you see no love at all?
Or do you see in me
What you always see
In every girl that you fall for
I will show you how long is meant to be
Just watch and learn and love certainly

REFREN

Will you ever see the day
Heartache leads astray
Good love will always come for me
Will you ever learn to love
Without a little doubt
Good love will always come from me
Can you look away

Is it we to say
That she haunts you night and day
And does it hurt your heart

When I say lets start
To heal the part that's been torn

Don't you see that
I'm really worth a try
And I say to you
I know just what to do

REFREN

Don't you see that I
I'm really worth a try
And I say to you
I know just what to do
