

Girls in Hawaii, Birthday Call

You call me once
Late in the night
The day I was born
Two-nine years ago now
You spoke about
Some memories
And told me why
You don't wanna live anymore

Am I alone
Am I distant
This thing ...
Rebirthed my bones
Are you the same
Are you crying some
Weeping for my
Waiting for a salvation

Sorry I'm disturbing you but I feel like something doesn't match
I've been in a prose, been in a prose, now you're growing tired
To wanna even try
I have a broken mind
Feeling knock-out lying in the sky

Some days the tree
Grows in the dark
My heart beats anyhow
Somehow that day
I move aside
I hook on everyone

This is what you want (x4)
Carnation (x7)

Sometimes I dream
... always ...
I make a wish
To shooting stars
Don't let me down
Don't let me down
To some I ...
To some I ...

Sorry I'm disturbing you but I feel like something doesn't match [I'm knowing now, I feel the same]
I've been in a prose, been in a prose, now you're growing tired
To wanna even try
I have a broken mind
Feeling knock-out lying in the sky

Some days the tree
Grows in the dark
My heart beats anyhow
Somehow that day
I leave aside
I hook on everyone

This is what you want (x4)
Carnation (x8)