

Girlysound, If I Ever Pay You Back

I don't have what it takes to stay with you
I'm leaving and undertaking's (?) not what I plan
But anyway you know
By and large anywhere I go
I won't find anyone who loves me enough to make you look bad

All the cars on the road are driving away from you
But I'm still looking under my nose to see who I am
But anywhere I go
(?) Any card I show
I won't find anyone who'll tell me what I need to know
That's not how it's done

But anyway you know
By and large anywhere I go
I won't find anyone who loves me enough

If I ever pay you back
If my money and wallet's intact
I'll probably be in a box laying down
Loosely suited in black

If I ever pay you back
If my money and wallet's intact
I'll probably be in a box laying down
Loosely suited in black
Loosely suited in black
Loosely suited in black