

Gladys Patches, Distant

Beside you restless still unknown
Held on to let you go

Feels like a new world in design
So empty and you home
Believing that I'm the one to fall
I shoulder the burden 'til you call
Believing that I'm the one to fall
I shoulder the burden
Silent

Seems like a blue world in my mind
Still empty and your home

Believing that I'm the one to fall
I shoulder the burden 'til you call
Believing that I'm the one to fall
I shoulder the burden

Silent
Too far
Weakness
Too far
I'm spent
Too far
Distant
Too far

Here we go backwards into the light
I close my eyes, don't wanna wait for you
Backwards into the light
I close my eyes, don't wanna wait for you
Backwards into the light
I close my eyes, don't wanna wait for you
Backwards into the light
I close my eyes
