

Glen Hansard and Marketa Irglova, Just Walk Away

Just run away
Don't wait till I call
And say what you want
You've made it clear
That you're on your own
And you're not coming back
And the song we sung
Don't mean nothing now

And just walk away
Don't wait till I crumble
And say what you want
You've made it clear
That you're on your own
And you're not coming back
And the song we sung
Won't mean nothing now
