

Glenn Hughes, Jolayne

I don't want to wait another moment for my love to arrive I don't want to live in all this torment while I'm alive Didn't come around with all your coolness and it's killing me inside I just want to be the one you talk to and confide

I don't know what's going on with you
I can see your life is pulling through chorus

Jolayne I give you love Jolayne
Jolayne look inside Jolayne

Open up yourself your heart is healing let the sunshine on your face and you oughta give yourself a new beginning with a smooth test embrace

with you
I can see your chances coming through

repeat chorus
