

Glenn Kaiser Band, I Forgive You

down every alley, up every street out in the country, where people meet you see it daily, an' ya hear it too not only in others, it's in you feel the pain or cause it, right or wrong or both lion or a lamb don't confuse it we're all in the same old boat they sometimes lie and leave you, an' use you then they're gone the river rolls beyond you both, but memories linger on i might pass before you, you might hang around

i might just outlive you, either way i forgive you yes i do&#oacute;i forgive you (only way to live)

we don't work the same garden but we had our share of strife still i beg your pardon and i wish you love and life no matter either way i may never win you but i found peace in Jesus cuz i forgive you, yes i do i forgive you
