

Glitter Kicks, Liar

You made it quite clear I'm not welcome here
Pushed me out then got mad when I left you dear
And now you call that a self-fulfilling prophecy
Have your cake and eat it but don't you feed that shit to me
Liar. Liar. Liar.

This is the last time I waste my breath on you again.
If your ship comes in I hope that your friends know how to swim
The absolute false is all you will ever be
The only disappointment is what you turned out to be
Liar. Liar. Liar.
