

Glitter Kicks, R.S.V.P

How will I know

Please send me an r.s.v.p. telepathically tell me.

I can't let it go.

If you sent a letter would it make it better or make it worse

I'd probably just blow it like I always do but god I want that chance with you

One arm around me while the other one is pushing me away

If you gave me a call

I wouldn't even mind it if you said the wrong thing or nothing at all

If you gave me a sign that I could be the one to hold you up

I'd never let you fall

I know I wouldn't blow it like I always do

If I just had a chance with you.

One arm around me while the other one is pushing me away

How will I know Please send an r.s.v.p. telepathically
