

Gluecifer, Reversed

I got a one way ticket and Im planning on comin back
I got body full of kicks and Im heading right for the sack
I got some bad-ass speakers playing Miles in a silent way
I gonna say my good byes and then Ill turn right round and stay

I got a one way ticket and Im planning on comin back
I got body full of kicks and Im heading right for the sack

Ill go where I dont wanna go (Yeah Ill go)
And I know when I dont know how (I know)
Ill smile with a tear in my eye (Ill cry)
And Ill stay when I say good bye good bye

You know its night when the morning comes to my heart
And you know its over when its time for me to start
Yeah Ill start the clock when you go across the finishing line
And Ill turn it left on the right turn turn off sign

Ill go where I dont wanna go (Yeah Ill go)
And I know when I dont know how (I know)
Ill smile with a tear in my eye (Ill cry)
And Ill stay when I say good bye good bye

When I say goodbye....

(repeat chorus)
